Established in 1920, the National Association of State Foresters is a non-profit organization comprised of the directors of forestry agencies in the states, territories and the District of Columbia of the United States.

Since 1999, the NASF Foundation has been supporting on-the-job experience for graduate and undergraduate students through the NASF Internship Program.

The Foundation internship gives candidates the opportunity to engage at the national level in policy and communications activities that influence public understanding of state and private forestry in the United States.

Requirements and details

• Advanced undergraduate or graduate students majoring in forestry, communications, or public policy.

• Outstanding writing skills and ability to work on multiple projects with varying deadlines.

• Experience writing press releases and policy fact sheets is a plus.

Compensation

Selected candidate will be paid a stipend of $1,500 per month. No other benefits. We encourage interested candidates to work with academic institution for financial aid.

Internship dates

August - December 2015 (flexible)

How to apply

Provide a cover letter, resume, and undergraduate or graduate school transcript to Amanda Cooke, Communications Director at acooke@stateforesters.org.

Please utilize the email subject line: Fall Internship Application

Internship sponsored by:

NASF FOUNDATION